1. APCC provided members with an update on current projects
2. APCC asked for suggestions to broaden our reach and it was suggested that we 'advertise' in trade press based on the FCA's 'What to look for in a Compliance Consultant' guidance. Bev to action
3. Members also suggested an interactive certificate would be useful that members could download and complete for them to evidence their membership to clients as and when required. Bev to action
4. Some members advised a refresh email reminding firms of the APCC logo and its availability on the website would be useful. Bev to action
